INSTRUCTIONS

Write an essay on at least ONE visual or oral text that you have studied, in response to ONE of the statements below.

If you choose to write about more than one text, the texts may be:

- the same type (e.g. two drama productions)
- a combination of different types ("intertextual studies" e.g. a film and a radio programme).

Give the details of your chosen text(s) in the box at the top of page 3. You may use the planning space on page 3 to map or plan your ideas.

VISUAL OR ORAL TEXTS

Discuss the extent to which you agree with your chosen statement. Respond critically to the statement by making a close analysis of the text(s).

STATEMENTS (Choose ONE)

- 1. The director's primary concern is to create a perfect combination of visual and verbal elements.
- 2. It is not until the closing of the text that we truly understand the importance of the opening.
- 3. A satisfying text is one in which the message is timeless.
- 4. It is the grim moments of a text that engage us most.
- 5. A successful text has multiple ways of shaping our understanding.
- 6. A memorable text is one in which the audience can see and/or hear themselves.
- 7. Effective settings help us to understand the ideas that lie beneath the surface.
- 8. For a text to be appealing it needs to have a heroic character.
- 9. A director or creator is successful when they take the audience away from comfort and security.
- 10. At the core of an effective text is a dynamic relationship.
